(c) what is the response of the Ministry of Information and Broadcasting in the matter ?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF CIVIL SUPPLIES, CONSUMER AFFAIRS AND PUBLIC DISTRIBUTION (SHRI KAMALUDDIN AHMED): (a) to (c) The problem of misleading advertisements was discussed in a meeting held between Minister of Civil Supplies, Consumer Affairs and Public Distribution and Minister of State for Information and Broadcasting. The Ministry of Information and Broadcasting is of the view that the present Code for Commercial Advertisements is sufficiently stringent. Further, they felt that the setting up of Censor Board like mechanism was not a permanent solution. It was observed that the most effective course of action would be to generate awareness amongst the consumers to voice their com-plaints before the appropriate bo-t;it.
